The Circulation of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin has the largest circulation of any paper in Eastern Connecticut, and from three to four times larger than that of any in the town. It is delivered to over 1,000 of the 4,053 houses in Norwich, and read by nearly three per cent. of the people. In Windham it is delivered to over 200 houses; in Putnam and Danielson to over 1,100, and in all of these places it is considered the local daily.

Showing Connecticut has forty-nine towns, one hundred and sixty-two postoffice districts, and forty-one rural free delivery routes. The Bulletin is sold in every town and on all of the R. F. D. routes in Eastern Connecticut.

PROF. CHANDLER'S CONDUCT.

"As a public speaking, nothing in our memory has ever equalled Professor Chandler's castigation of his son George."—Springfield Republican.

No one claims that it was love for his son that made Professor Chandler antagonize George in his campaign in this state against Judge Baldwin, by sending an opposing letter to the Hartford Times, and one venture to suggest that it was hate. It was an extraordinary thing for a father to do by an able son, and certainly indicates that he is not as confident of his own flesh and blood as he might be. It has certainly given Chandler, the senior, more notoriety than fame; and is not regarded by citizens generally as an honorable contest for the father of such a son. George B. Chandler has the same right to support Charles A. Goodwin that his father has to support Judge Baldwin, and there is nothing in what the elder Chandler has said to influence a single voter to think less of what Chandler, the younger, has to say. George B. Chandler is a star orator of the campaign and will be heard in Norwich this week on Wednesday evening. The Bulletin guarantees that Mr. Chandler will have a large audience and hold the interest of his hearers from the opening until the close of his address. The fact that Chandler, the elder, felt constrained to add his attack on his son to all the other assaults being made upon him, only shows that he is doing effective work for the republican side in this campaign. Intelligent voters should go and hear George and then vote for Goodwin and the public utilities bill and better laws.

ROOSEVELT HAS BEEN HEARD FROM.

Theodore Roosevelt has made answer to Judge Baldwin, and the intelligent readers of the papers can have no doubt that Judge Baldwin is on record as a retrograde element rather than a progressive one. The case of Horne against the railroad company being of local interest, the quoted decision naturally makes a deep impression among the working classes of eastern Connecticut. Roosevelt shows conclusively that Judge Baldwin not only sustains the laws which are against the workman's interest, but also that he is still a firm adherent of the old-fashioned type.

Over at New Britain the other evening Judge Baldwin was condemning the republican party and commending

SUGGESTIONS FOR HOUSEWIFE.

Salt mixed with vinegar is excellent for cleaning copper vessel.

If bureau or pantry drawers stick, rub the edges with damp soap.

Almonds chopped fine and browned in sugar make delicious ice cream.

Rustic hanging baskets for the piazza are more practical than the silt-lined ones.

To test beef, press it down with the thumb. If it rises quickly, the meat is good.

Oil of lavender, sprinkled about in the bookshelves, will prevent books from mildewing.

Potato parings, dried in the oven, are good to kindle fires, as they light more easily than wood.

A pair of scissors is infinitely better for trimming off the rind from ham or bacon than a knife.

Grease on top of a hot stove can be quickly rubbed off by putting salt on the scrubbing brush.

Half a lemon placed in the water in which dish towels and kitchen cloths are soaked is said to sweeten them wonderfully. However, after a thorough washing a good hot sun will do wonders.

According to an ingenious Scotch device house plants can be kept well watered during a week's absence of the housekeeper. Set a bowl of water well above the plant to be watered by means of a box or a pile of books. Twist several strands of draining wool together or braid them to form a long wick and sink them in water. If one end of the wick reaches to the bottom of the bowl, the water will continue to rise until the bowl is emptied.

What About This Inquiry?

Judge Baldwin has asked his audience: "Is this state for sale?" a number of times from the rostrum; and the state, it is said, is for sale.
